THE EIGHTH SESSION OF YEOSU ACADEMY OF THE LAW OF THE SEA, VIRTUAL PROGRAM

The Yeosu Academy of the Law of the Sea provides education and training on ocean law and maritime affairs for emerging thought leaders from developing nations to better address maritime challenges.

The global pandemic of COVID-19 has changed the way we meet and gather across the globe. Amid these circumstances, the Eighth Session of Yeosu Academy will be conducted globally through virtual sessions from 6 to 15 December 2021.

The Eighth Session of Yeosu Academy features 16 live lectures and more than 50 pre-recorded lectures by the world's leading experts in the law of the sea, which will offer participants flexibility in study at their own interests. Successful participants earn a professional certificate and receive preferential consideration for an invitation to a follow-on advanced academic program planned for Korea in 2022, travel and other circumstances permitting.

Who can Apply

Anyone from countries on the DAC List of ODA Recipients by OECD who are interested in the oceans or are engaged in maritime related work are welcome to apply for the Academy.

- Government officials or researchers
- Professors or graduate students
- Anyone interested in learning about ocean affairs and/or the law of the sea

How to Apply

1. Please access our homepage www.yeosuacademy.com
2. Follow the Application Guide. Fill out an application form and attach documents required.
